A communication was read from the architect of the new buildings, Vernon Redding, of Mansfield, stating that the Palm Vacuum Cleaning corpany had not furnished a satisfactory bond to insure the board against infringement, and until this is done the work will not be completed.A communication was read from the Newark Trades and Labor Council asking the Board to use as far as possible union labor in the construction of any public work under the authority of the Board of Education.An application was read from the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus asking to rent the old Flory grounds, now owned by the city and under direction of the Board of Education to be used asa play grounds, on April 28, upon which date they wish to show in Newark.Upon motion it was decided to offer the grounds to the circus people for $75.Superintendent Hawkins suggested that ten or twelve loads of soil be put upon the lawn in front of the High school building.Upon the play ground proposition plans for raising funds were outlined by Superintendent Hawkins and Principal O. J. Barnes of the High school.
These plans are contained in the following, read by Mr. Hawkins:

"March 18, 1912.
"To Board of Education, Newark, City School District:
"Gentlemen:—In the month of December of last year, after being petitioned to do so by the Board of Trade, and obedient to a public demand, you purchased a 6 1-2 acre tract of land situated on Eleventh street at a cost of $5,100, to be used as a public playground and recreation center for all the people of this city, without regard to race, color, or religion.

This tract of land is so situated as to be of easy access to all Newark.
This investment of $5,100 was made, and it was your full intention that the properly equipped playground should soon follow. This investment is a wasted one so long as the playground is not seriously realized."Every member of this Board knows that you are seriously handicapped for funds, in fact you have not the means at your command to equip this playground in the way it should be equipped to meet the needs of this city's children."It is perhaps, unnecessary that I should enter into a discussion as to why Newark should have a well equipped playground and athletic field, but in order that you and the publicORDINANCE GIVING FRANCHISE TO OHIO ELECTRIC RAILWAY
AT NEXT COUNCIL MEETINGCompany Offers to Build New Station and Make Extensions Costing About $200,000, if Privileges are Given for 25-Year Period, Meaning Extension of Present Franchise for Eleven Years.An important meeting was held in the council chamber Tuesday night, which was attended by city officers, members of the city council, directors of the board of trade, W. C.
Metz and R. M. Davidson of the Canal Land Company, the legislative committee of the Trades and Labor Assembly, and J. R. Fitzgibbon, the counsel for the Ohio Electric Railway Company.The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing the matter of extension of the electric lines throughout parts of the city with no street car service, and other matters of importance that the company had in mind.The net result of the meeting can be summarized in a very few words and involves the proposition of the company, made through Mr. Fitzgibbon, and is substantially the desire of the company to obtain franchise rights.Mr. Fitzgibbon said:
"The company stands ready and anxious to build a new station in Newark that will be indeed a credit to the city, as well as adequate for the needs of the company, and in addition to make an extension to the northwestern part of the city. Further, if some way is provided to cross the steam roads' tracks, an extension will be built through South Newarkto the Catholic cemetery. This, with other necessary work, will mean an expenditure by the company of approximately $200,000, and in return the city is asked to grant a 25-years' franchise to the company, which, in effect, means only an extension of the present franchise, under which operations are conducted for a period of 11 years."The situation is just this: The present franchise was granted in August, 1902, and has therefore only run 11 years (or will have next August), giving over 14 years until it expires. If the company is given a franchise of 25 years from the present date, it would mean virtually only an extension of this privilege for 11 years. I will prepare a franchise ordinance in accordance with the desires of the company and have it ready for presentation and consideration of the city council at the next meeting, April 6th."It was the general sense of the meeting that this would be the proper method of procedure, and it will be adopted.At the council meeting in April the franchise question can be discussed, the requests of the company some over in detail, the interests of the city properly guarded, and an ordinance passed that will be to the mutual benefit of all concerned.may know what other cities are doing I submit the following data:

"1. There are 285 cities in the United States maintaining regularly supervised playgrounds. In these 285 cities are 2,094 playgrounds and 5,320 employed workers. A total expenditure of $4,020,121.79 was made during the year ending Nov. 1, 1912, for playgrounds and recreation work in these cities. In 99 cities playgrounds are supported by municipal taxes, in 90 cities by private funds, in 94 cities by municipal and private funds.

"2. In many cities playgrounds are open through the year, but in most cases for about six months. First class playgrounds are open during the summer months and not only during the daylight hours, but are equipped with lighting facilities and are open in the evenings.

"3. In the 285 cities having playgrounds there was a total average daily attendance of 423,600 people during July and August, and 45 cities having their centers open in the winter months an average daily attendance of 33,639 in January and February.

"4. In 41 cities land has been donated by public spirited citizens for

INTEREST IN AKRON STRIKE
IS WANINGAkron, O., March 19.—A fire at the house where seven employees of the Goodyear Rubber Company room last night is attributed by the police to the work of incendiaries. On Tuesday there was a fire at the Goodyear plant. At least 500 employes were added to the payrolls of the rubber factories here today.
There was no demonstration by the strikers and many expressed the belief that interest in the strike was waning.700 GIRLS ON STRIKE FOR HIGHER PAYEast Liverpool, March 19.—Seven hundred girls employed in potteries in nearby towns and West Virginia struck today because the employers last night refused their demands for an increase from $1.05 and $1.10 to $1.50 a day. Operations of 30 clay product manufactories were crippled and if the strike is continued two days it is said that 5000 men will be thrown out of employment. Besides East Liverpool other towns affected are Wellsville, O., Chester and Newell, W.
Va.QUICK TARIFF
REVISION IS
THE PROGRAMWashington, March 19.—Quick tariff revision along lines that will be acceptable to Democratic leaders and in conformity to the party platform is the program for the extra session.The president today conferred with leaders regarding plans for the work.
Leader Underwood and Senator Simmons of North Carolina, will handle the brunt of the work in drafting the bill and they will confer frequently with the president between now and convening of congress.Belief was expressed today that the tariff work could be transacted so speedily that other legislation could be given attention at the special session.LICENSE BILL
MAY BE LAST TO BE CONSIDEREDColumbus, March 19.—Democratic leaders today intimated that the Greenland liquor license bill may be one of the last administration measures to be considered before the legislature adjourns April 4, preparatory to final adjournment April 17th. They declare that because of the hot fight that will be waged on the bill that it may be advisable to leave it until the last for fear that it might be responsible for ill feeling which would serve to defeat other measures of importance. Many of the less important bills may not go before either house before adjournment.The house today passed a bill providing for the removal of public officials upon complaint or public hearing. This bill was made possible by a recent amendment to the constitution. A bill creating a commission to go to Europe and study foreign credits with a view to legislation passed the house today. It will go to the governor for his signature.PLEADED GUILTY TO MANSLAUGHTERColumbus, March 19.—Ora Best, 22, of Adams county, state hospital attendant, today pleaded guilty to manslaughter in Judge Rogers court for the killing of Jonathan Barnhart, patient at the institution January 19, this year. Best was indicted on a charge of second degree murder. Owing to his age, he is expected to be given a reformatory sentence.

Secretary Tumulty Distinctively a Family Man.

(Copyright by Underwood &amp; Underwood)

Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, has endeared himself to official Washington by his general personality. All of his spare time is spent with his wife and six children. The pride of his heart is little Joe, Jr., eight years old, who, like his father, is an ardent admirer of President Wilson. Joe, Jr., always wears a badge containing a portrait of the President pinned to his coat.PRESIDENT WILSON SENDS MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE
TO THE WIDOWED QUEENWashington, March 19.—President Wilson's first act today was to send this message to the widowed queen of the late King George of Greece:"I am expressibly shocked to hear of the terrible crime which resulted in the death of the King and I offer to Your Majesty, to the Royal family and to the Grecian nation, sincere condolences of the government and people of the United States and an expression of my own deep sympathy."Salonika, March 19.—The body of the late King George of Greece was embalmed today and removed from the hospital to the palace on a stretcher borne by his son, Prince Nicholas, and several superior officers of the Greek army.The stretcher was followed by a strangely diversified procession, consisting of regular troops in the campaign outfit, officers in brilliant uniforms, clergy, civilians, Cretans, Greeks, Mussulmen and peoples of the various Balkan races in a kaleidoscopic variety of costumes.The procession on its way to the palace passed the spot where King George was shot down yesterday.
A guard of honor, consisting of Greek captains and priests, the latter continually chanting prayers, will be stationed around the body until it is removed for burial.Salonika, March 19.—Aleko Schinas, murderer of King George of Greece, appeared to have heard much abroad. He returned to this city when it was occupied by the Greek army after the surrender of the Turkish garrison.At police headquarters he talked but little. "You have courts here, I will speak there," he said.That the murder was deliberately planned appears evident, since the assassin, who was in hiding, rushed out and shot the king in the back. A shot at the king's aide went wide.Athens, Greece, March 19.—Queen Olga of Greece, who was too prostrated last night, following news of her husband's assassination, to sail for Salonika, left today. When she received the news, she swooned, revived and swooned again.All the princes and princesses of the royal family accompanied the queen mother to Salonika. State mourning has been ordered for six months and court mourning for a year. All flags are at half mast.The population is overwhelmed.

Dollar You Spend

By John P. Fallon.)

A dollar is worth 100 cents value in everything you buy, but do you always get "value received"?You can give or take from the value of a dollar by the way in which you spend it. Your pleasure in life, your standing and influence in the community depends largely upon the value you place on every dollar you own and the value you get on every dollar you spend.Dollars spent unwisely lose their full purchasing power and value to you; careful spending and systematic saving will enable you to secure "value received" and future independence.You will secure full value for every dollar you spend by reading the advertisements in THE ADVOCATE closely and constantly every day. THE ADVOCATE'S advertisements will Total loss, estimated at $3650. Total insurance, $10,600.

Fire which for a time threatened the business district at Union and West Main streets broke out Tuesday afternoon in an outbuilding in the rear of the King Pharmacy, in West Main street, and driven by a high wind, the flames communicated to the two-story frame structure owned by Mrs. R. B. Conner of Columbus. Before the blaze was finally extinguished by the united efforts of the entire fire department, damage estimated at $5000 to $6000 resulted to the dozen tenants in the building. The heaviest losses resulted from water damage to the drug stock in the King pharmacy and the stock in the Shoemaker grocery. All perishable goods in these two stores were damaged by water and the loss will be heavy.The blaze was discovered promptly, but it spread so rapidly that efforts to fight it with a bucket brigade failed, though there was no delay in getting the alarm to the fire department. The firemen were on the scene in a remarkably short space of time, and only the loudest praise was heard for the efficient manner in which the blaze was attacked and controlled.The blaze was discovered at four o'clock by one of the tenants on the second floor. At this time it was only a small blaze in the floor of the outbuilding, probably started by a lighted match or a cigar stub.H. Conner, son of the owner of the building, was in the Spittle barber shop and he ran to the rear door. Seeing that a bucket of water would probably extinguish the blaze, he attempted to draw water from the stationary wash stand. Being unable to get the bucket under the faucet, he ran to the watering trough across the street. In the meantime a telephone alarm was sent to the fire department.When Conner returned with the bucket of water, he was unable to leave the back door, as the flames were leaping in great sheets againstFIRE DESTROYS "HOUSE OF DEATH"Chicago, March 19.—The tragic existence of the "House of Death" on Wentworth avenue was closed today with its destruction by an incendiary fire in which three lives were lost.
Frank Pustella and his brother-in-law, Joseph Cavaliere, escaped by jumping from a second story window but Mrs. Pustella and her daughters, aged 3 and 5, perished in the flames. The house gained its name in the neighborhood because of the fatalities which have occurred within it during the past ten years.FATHER AND SONS

ON FRAUD CHARGENew York, March 19.—Old Antonio Musica, a wealthy importer of hair goods, charged by a score of banks with invoice frauds estimated at a million dollars, was arrested today in New Orleans with his three sons, Philip, George and Arthur. All fled the city last week, when cases of "extra fine hair" on which they had negotiated money advances, were found to contain "scraps." The father and his son Philip have already been indicted by the grand jury. The firm was thrown into bankruptcy.OFFICERS CHARGED and sent by special train to Mexico City, by order of the district judge.

NEED OF PLAY.

Why have playgrounds? Why? Why does a flower need light. The child needs a playground because his growth is through activity, through those specific forms of activity which his nature has prescribed, and because accordingly, he will never grow up—or he will grow up stunted or perverted, if he is denied those opportunities and objects to which his vital, instinctive and formative activities relate.

Play and opportunities for play are not a luxury, but a vital necessity for children. Nature has so ordered that the chief business of the children during their early years is to play, if they are to grow normally. It is the law of their lives. Deprive them of their play and neglect their need of wise leadership in the exercise of this fundamental need of their natures, and we have struck a death-blow to all that is finest and best in their lives. The little invalid girl gave expression to this divine innate passion of child-life when she said, "I don't want to get dead and be an angel. I want to play first."

We all of us, young and old, "want to play first" and the play instinct is coming into its own again and is beginning to receive the recognition which it merits. It is our task to see that the play instinct does not bring undesired punishment upon itself, as in the case of the little six year old, who, as she sat in a tenement room fashioning artificial flowers with her tiny fingers, said: "Sometimes I get licked 'cause I don't want to work and want to play with my doll." We must see to it also that the instinct for play and the energy it produces is turned in the right direction, and is not self-destructive.

Park departments in many of our large cities have recognized this, and instead of putting up "Keep off the grass" signs, have opened a part of the grounds for the use of the children, equipping them with apparatus and putting a trained leader in charge. Newark is about to have the opportunity to assist in acquiring a play ground for its children. We predict that Newark will be generous and do herself honor.

W. W. DURBIN.

It is quite a singular circumstance in these days of high cost of living and keen competition for positions, for jobs to be running after men. If it was just a two-by-four position with an unattractive salary attached the race of job after man would not be out of the ordinary. But every one will agree that it is quite remarkable to see a man refuse a real $6000 a year position, that would take the holder of it down to the Federal Capital and put him in the front rank of the notable assemblage of officers there.

The above observations were made to accentuate the oft repeated assertion that great merit and ability are found in a man when responsible positions go to him unsolicited.

W. W. Durbin of Kenton, is the man who is responsible for the singular spectacle of a lucrative position chasing after a man. Not long ago the report was sent out from Washington, that a position as assistant postmaster general had been offered to the Kenton Democratic war horse. Although this is one of the plums of the new federal administration, that is eagerly sought after, it did not appeal to Mr. Durbin.

When Durbin went to Washington last week, Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan offered him a responsible position in the department. The offering of the place was not a singular occurrence, but the refusal of the offer was out of the ordinary.

Why did Mr. Bryan thus honor the Kenton man? Because in seventeen years of terrific battling for high ideals in governmental affairs the Nebraskan had seen the motto of the Kenton man test of many times, and he had always found it strong and true for the great policies he was advocating. There has been no break in the tie between the two since that memorable campaign in 1896, when as chairman of Mr. Bryan's Ohio campaign committee, Durbin conducted the battle with such adroitness and skill, that it required a golden stream of money from Wall street and a formidable brigade of Mark Hanna's best orators to stem the tide toward the Democratic presidential candidate. Contrary to the plans of 99 out of every 100 Democrats who go to Washington, Durbin went there to get places, if possible, for his friends. If they are taken care of, he will be satisfied to remain in Kenton and let the other fellows have the $5,000 and $6,000 jobs in Washington.

CONTRACTS FOR CITY JOBS ARE LET WEDNESDAY

The board of control, consisting of Mayor Swartz, Service Director Jas. McCarthy and Safety Director Wayne Collier, today awarded the contracts for the sewer and paving construction, bids for which were opened last week. The successful bidders were Adams Bros. Construction Company, Zanesville; Henderson Bros., Coshocton; Geo. J. Bock & Son, Coshocton, and R. H. Nutter of Newark. Adams Bros. were awarded the contract for sewers in Union, North, Columbia and Seventh streets. Henderson Bros. got the Mahoning, Baker and South Third street sewer contracts, and Bock & Son the Grandville street sewer. The contract for paving Union, Mahoning, South Fifth and Cedar streets was awarded to R. H. Nutter, Newark contractor. The matter of awarding the contracts for the paving of Grandville street was referred until April 19, and Buckingham street until March 26, to allow the property owners to further investigate the relative merits of certain paving materials. Work will be commenced by the contractors as soon as the weather permits. As was stated at Monday night's council meeting, as far as possible the contractors will employ Newark laborers and teams and will use Newark-made materials for the work.

REDUCTION OF TARIFF ASSURED

Bills of Last Congress Basis of New Ones.

SUBSTANTIAL REVISION DUE

Same Men Who Drafted Early Measures on Subject Helping to Redraft Them—Original Provisions Are Guide to What Changes Will Be Made. Agricultural Schedule to Be Cut.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, March 19.—(Special.)—The tariff bills of the last congress are made the basis of the bills or bill which the Democratic members of the ways and means committee will present to the caucus when the extra session meets. Naturally those bills had to be adopted. The same men who made them, with a few exceptions, are redrafting the tariff, and they adopted the same bills with a few minor modifications.

The committee did not revise the entire tariff at the last congress, but the bills which were reported and passed can be taken as a guide to the reduction which will be made all along the line. And the reductions are going to be something substantial from one end of the tariff to the other. Even the agricultural schedule will be cut down with the others, although some farming constituencies are opposing any reduction.

Stronger Road Movement.

The advocates of good roads are going to make a stronger effort than ever before to secure the favorable action of congress toward spending money on rural post roads. A proposition is being discussed looking to the coupling of a roadmaking measure with one to raise more money by increasing the taxes on liquors and tobacco, the money thus raised to be expended wholly for roads. If such a measure gets before congress it is likely to obtain many votes.

Will Be Free Lances.

Notwithstanding that the olive branch was extended by the Republican senators to the Progressives the developments thus far show that the Progressives intend to continue their independent career. The votes against Senator Gallinger for president pro tem of the senate showed that the old feeling still exists.

Chaff For New Men.

While the Democrats recognized the new senators to some extent, the Republicans stuck to the old system of giving their new senators nothing but chaff. With the exception of Norris of Nebraska, who gets a place on agriculture, and Weeks, who has a place on postoffices, both second rate committees by the way, there is little in the way of prominent places for the six new Republican senators.

Meanwhile the older senators have retained places on appropriations, foreign relations, finance, judiciary, commerce, interstate commerce, military affairs, naval affairs and others which are of nearly as much importance. Most of them have two and three places on these committees. When it comes to committee places there is mighty little senatorial courtesy.

Not of High Rank.

Much stress was laid upon the division of the duties of the finance committee of the senate and creation of a new committee to be known as banking and currency. An attempt has been made to show that the new committee ranks as high as the finance committee on account of prospective financial legislation. As a matter of fact it is a third rate committee. There has been such a committee in the house for years, and it has amounted to very little. The committee that handles the tariff is the big committee, and a comparison between the ways and means committee and the banking and currency committee in the house shows their relative importance.

They Do Not Speak.

Nearly everybody noticed and commented on the fact that Champ Clark did not speak to William J. Bryan when they both appeared in the inauguration stand. There is another possible embarrassing situation which may come up if the chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs should have business with the secretary of state. It was Hal Flood who was prompt to resent Bryan's attack on Thomas F. Ryan at the Baltimore convention, and right to his face Flood administered a "skinning" to the Nebraskan.

Then we all remember that it was Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee who denounced Bryan in no uncertain terms on the floor of the house. Altogether there are quite a number of men who do not find themselves in agreeable relations with the premier of the cabinet.

An Old House Habit.

It was during the regime of Tom Reed that the house adopted a rule by which a man might answer "present" if he did not desire to vote. Senator Shafroth of Colorado acted under that rule in the senate on a roll call where he did not wish to take sides for or against a question which was of a personal nature to some extent. It was his former house training.

United Doctors Endorsed From All Parts of the Country—New Jersey Man's Statement.

A RAPID CURE.

Ten Days' Treatment Under New System Practically Cured This Man of Inflammatory Rheumatism.

Innumerable cities in the United States boast of a United Doctor Institute, and these institutes are located in communities separated often by great distances.

The following statement made by a Trenton, N. J., man who was cured by the United Doctors at their Trenton Institute shows that each United Doctor Institute receives its share of praise.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 4, 1913.

"To the Public:

"After having doctoring one whole year and not finding relief, I applied for treatment at the Trenton Institute of the United Doctors.

"My case was an unusually severe one of inflammatory rheumatism, which had spread throughout all my joints, incidentally causing very painful swelling in my hands, arms and legs, so that I was unable to work for months.

"Ten days ago I started treatment with these specialists and it is my desire to let everyone know with what results.

"The swelling has entirely disappeared and I am feeling better now in every respect than I have felt since I first took sick.

"Not only do I not hesitate to recommend their methods of treatment in such cases as mine, but would advise all sufferers from any disease or ailment to consult the United Doctors."

(Signed),

MICHAEL GLENCON, 19 Dickerson St., Trenton, N. J.

The United Doctors treat among other diseases and ailments, diseases of the nerves, blood, heart, liver, kidneys, spine, bladder, including rheumatism, gall-stones, goitre, epilepsy, rupture, neuralgia, dropsy, asthma, catarrh, deafness, constipation, rectal troubles, weak lungs, and diseases of women and diseases of men.

The United Doctors' Newark institute is located on the second floor of the Arcade building, the entrance being in the Arcade, near the Third street end.

dition for sale and the appearance of the tract generally improved. In the future, all city prisoners will be compelled to work out the amount of their fines when they fail to produce the cash to liquidate the amount.

PROMISE OF IMMUNITY TO OFFICIALS

Columbus, March 19.—Frank Davis, counsel for the attorney general, today authorized the statement that the officials of the defunct Columbus Savings and Trust company, can either "come across" or stand criminal prosecution, adding that the state was in possession of information that makes this alternative enforceable. Mr. Davis thereby intimates that Henry W. Backus, secretary and treasurer of the bank, had made a complete statement and that immunity would be granted those who made a clean breast of alleged irregularities.

A sensational story of how funds of the state of Ohio were alleged to have passed between the office of the state treasury and the defunct Saving and Trust company was told today in state examination of the failure of the bank by Henry W. Backus, secretary and treasurer of the defunct concern.

According to his testimony before Master Commissioner Okey, bank officials would carry money from the state treasurer's office to the bank when they learned that a bank examiner was going over the bank's accounts.

Former State Treasurer Cameron, he said, was in on the deal. Money of the state also was used in a York, Pa., concern in which Cameron was interested.

QUICKEST STOMACH RELIEF KNOWN - PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

In five minutes! Time it! All Indigestion, Heartburn and Dyspepsia gone and your stomach feels fine.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; if your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin oc-asionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quick, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

CHATS WITH THINKING WOMEN by Barbara Boyd

Romance That Is Not Romantic

HE was a tall, athletic, rather good-looking fellow, though to the discerning eye, his face showed traces of weakness and self-indulgence. He drove a public carriage at a mountain resort, and was in great demand among the tourists, because of his picturesque way of telling stories of Western life.

A waitress at one of the hotels of the same resort was his wife, a sad-faced woman, though her countenance still bore traces of a one-time girlish prettiness.

And in the lives of these two, was quite a "Virginian" romance. For this girl was a school teacher in a little Eastern town, and engaged to one of the most prosperous and respected young men of her native village. Life seemed to be flowing along serenely with the engaged couple, when—enter the cowboy.

He was the son of a good family of the same town, but several years before, had run away from home, and been entirely lost sight of. His father had finally located him, and sent him a pleading letter to return. And like the prodigal, he came back—only in no prodigal spirit. For though he had eaten of husks in the far country, he kept this fact strictly to himself. He told thrilling tales of his life in the West. He dressed in picturesque cowboy fashion, and he became quite the hero of the little town. It wasn't long before the school teacher had broken her engagement to her prosperous but common-place lover, married the stranger, and gone with him to the Western life, he had so glowingly depicted.

And then came hardships such as she had never known. And after years of all kinds of wanderings, and all kinds of work, she was earning most of the living as a waitress in a resort hotel.

And thus instead of the pleasant path that life in the beginning had seemed to have for her, she had been led over steep and stony trails where there was nothing but barrenness and hardships.

What had brought about the change? Some will say it was fate.

But was it not rather, a lack in herself, of appreciation of true values? Through reading books that gave false pictures of life, or perhaps through an education that failed to teach her to know the true, she had altogether a false understanding of what real love is. She had so clothed it with romance, that it had lost all semblance to its true self. And when the youth appeared with his halo of adventure, he corresponded so exactly to the picture of the romantic lover she had made, that being unable to distinguish the false from the true, she was captivated by the glitter, and threw aside the real for the imitation.

But should not a girl's reading and education be such as to give her a true understanding of love—not to rob it of romance, but to give it the romance that lasts?

And should not the school that teaches her this, be the real school-room of girlhood that prepares for life, and whose lessons if rightly learned will make life happy, and not the bitter life-school of experience, in the learning of whose lessons is often only sorrow?

Barbara Boyd.

IT'S EASY TO DARKEN GRAY, FADED HAIR WITH SAGE TEA

Harmless But Effective—
Mixed With Sulphur
Makes Hair Soft and Luxuriant.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur, for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is coming in vogue again, says a well-known downtown druggist. It was our grand-mother's treatment and hundreds of women and men too, are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is the most popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply dampen a soft brush or sponge with "Wych's Sage and Sulphur" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight, and by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application it is restored to its natural color.

What delights the ladies with Wych's Sage and Sulphur is that because it is so gentle, it darkens the hair color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Besides, it prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. Look, you gray-haired folk, get busy! Here, years younger.

SKIN PEELING NATURE'S AID TO NEW COMPLEXION

(From Woman's Tribune.)
"Mercurized wax is a natural beautifier. By flaking off the de-vitalized outer skin, it merely hastens Nature's work. The second skin layer, brought gradually to view, exhibits the skin's youthful color produced by capillary circulation. This because the capillaries are thus brought nearer the surface; also because the new skin is unsoiled by dust and dirt. This wax, to be had at any drug store, can either be used at night, or after a warm water bath. Its work usually is completed in from seven to ten days, long enough not to show too marked results from day to day, or cause pain or irritation incoors."

A face bath to remove wrinkles, made by dissolving an ounce of exsorbite in a half pint water, is another natural beautifier, since its astringent and tonic effects smooth out the wrinkles in accordance with Nature's own process. (Advertisement.)

Grand Rajah Abood Awakens Friend to Congratulate Him

District Deputy, Tom O'Donnell is receiving a profusion of congratulations today for his birthday. The district deputy says he has only one thing to regret about his natal day. He would have appreciated it if he had been born on St. Patrick's day. For then when friends would celebrate with him in honor, the other folks wouldn't be green and having a gay time, it would seem, were also jollying for him. Grand Rajah, Mike Abood, for fear he would not be first to extend greeting and best wishes to the district deputy, went to the latter's room early Tuesday morning, he had awakened and wrote the deputy to wish him well—Columbus Ave.

The many friends in this city of the handsome and genial Thomas also extend congratulations on attaining another natal day. Word from Mr. O'Donnell to the Elk minstrel company is to the effect that he is assisting in organizing a band of fifty Coshocton Elks who will help make things lively at the minstrel show on Thursday and Friday of next week. The boys are coming down in a special chartered car and a number expected to participate in the big Elk minstrel parade.

Go to Prayer Meeting tonight.

BAD BREATH

It's Your Duty to Get at the Cause and Remove It. A Word to the Wise, You Know.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, of the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant sugar coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Olive Tablets act gently, but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system of impurities.

They do all that dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening gripping cathartics are derived from Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. Take one every night for a week and note the effect.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own," 19c and 25c per box.

NEARBY TOWNS

Coshocton, March 19.—Thomas Hadley, 25, a coal miner, was caught under a heavy rock in the Williams mine yesterday afternoon and his left ear was severed from his head. A companion who rescued Hadley picked up the severed ear and carried it to the hospital, where surgeons sewed it back in position. They asserted the operation was successful.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Zanesville, March 19.—A. C. Moore, 50, an employee of the Columbus Butter Company's branch here, was instantly killed when he was crushed between the floor and elevator at the company's factory yesterday afternoon.

LABOR EDITOR DIES SUDDENLY. Zanesville, March 19.—Tunis V. Mount, 65, veteran printer and editor of the Zanesville Labor Journal, was stricken with apoplexy while walking down Main street, and died in a few minutes.

HELPERS GO ON STRIKE. Coshocton, March 19.—Nearly a hundred glassblowers helpers at the Coshocton Glass Company, have gone on a strike, asking for higher wages. The glassblowers declare they are not in sympathy with the movement and will continue working.

NEARBY TOWN BRIEFS. Safety Director Barger of Columbus says grocers as well as saloon keepers must close their stores on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Neil, nee Tillinghast, died last night at Columbus.

ELKS

Of This City May Be in Baseball League to Be Formed Sunday at Zanesville.

The Elks of Newark, Zanesville, Mt. Vernon and Lancaster are contemplating the forming of a baseball league, and a meeting will be held here next Sunday to map out plans. Officers will be elected, constitution and bylaws adopted and a schedule drawn up. One game will be played each week on Sunday.

The local Elks held a meeting recently and elected Fred Fitzgerald manager.

The rivalry in baseball among the Elks clubs of these cities has been intense during the past years, and it is practically decided that by playing league baseball all arguments regarding supremacy on the diamond will be settled.—Zanesville Times Recorder.

BILIOUSNESS, GAS, HEADACHE, MEAN CONSTIPATED BOWELS

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" cleanses your stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels of sour bile, gas, decaying food and clogged-up waste, no griping.

A harmless cure for sick headache, for biliousness, for a sour, gas-filled, disordered stomach, for constipation, indigestion, coated tongue, mal-lowness, pimples, take Delicious Syrup of Figs. For the cause of all these troubles lies in a torpid liver and sluggish condition of your thirty feet of bowels.

A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs to-night means all poisonous waste matter, the undigested, fermenting food and sour bile, gently moved on and out of your system by morning, without griping, nausea or weakness. It means a cheery day tomorrow—many bright days thereafter.

Please don't think of gentle, effective Syrup of Figs as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself, for luscious figs, senna and aromatics can not injure anyone.

This remarkable fruit preparation is a wonderful stomach, liver and bowel cleanser, regulator and tonic, the safest and most positive ever devised.

The day of violent purgatives, such as calomel, pills, salts and castor oil is past. They were all wrong. You got relief, but at what a cost! They acted by flooding the bowels with fluids, but these fluids were digestive juices. Syrup of Figs embodies only harmless laxatives which act in a natural way. It does what right food would do—what eating lots of fruit and what plenty of exercise will do for the liver, stomach and bowels.

Be sure you get the old reliable and genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by The California Fig Syrup Company. Hand back, with scorn, any Fig Syrup imitation recommended as "just as good."

ing a loss of $3,500 with insurance amounting to less than $1,000.

The fire was discovered by Messrs. Ridenour and Armstrong, the latter an employee of the company. Ridenour is employed at the pumping station of the B. & O. located near the plant.

Armstrong had gone to the stables to feed the horses and he discovered the blaze almost at the same instant that Ridenour saw the flames leaping from the wagon shed.

The men experienced some difficulty in turning in the fire alarm by telephone but finally succeeded. The delay was sufficient to allow the fire to gain considerable headway.

Railroad employees assisted in rescuing the eight horses from the barn and this work was accomplished before the arrival of the department. The fire almost totally destroyed the wagon shed, barn and storage building. In the shed were three tank wagons and a dray. All were destroyed. One of the wagons exploded during the progress of the fire, and the cover from the top was blown several hundred yards, dropping on the B. & O. station platform.

A large quantity of grain, hay and other feed was destroyed. Several empty tanks such as are used as containers in grocery stores, stored in the barn loft, were destroyed.

Manager E. C. Legge stated to the Advocate Wednesday morning that he was unable to account for the origin of the fire unless it was the work of incendiaries. This fire coupled with the act of miscreants several days ago who opened the tap of one of the large tanks, allowing 700 gallons of gasoline to escape, leads him to believe that some one with an imagined grudge against the company is working in an effort to injure it.

"I know no enemy either of myself or the company," he said, "but I can't account for the fire in any other way." He estimated the loss at $3,500, with insurance amounting to less than $1,000. He stated that the new tank wagons would be on hand in a day or so and that the company would be in shape then to handle the business as usual. As far as possible, the business was being handled with the use of a borrowed spring wagon.

The fire at the oil plant made the third blaze the department was called upon to extinguish within 18 hours. Two fires resulted in considerable loss, the total being close to $12,000, with insurance amounting to about $11,000.

The first fire Tuesday afternoon, was in the field near the North Fork, between Main and Indiana streets, dry weeds and brush burning over a vast area. There was no loss from this fire.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

"5. In 25 cities bond issues for recreation purposes were authorized during the year totaling $3,785,404.

"6. Forty-three cities opened playgrounds for the first time during the year ending November 1, 1931, at a cost of over $600,000.

"7. Over 50 cities without playgrounds report that very definite steps are being taken to secure them, and many others that campaigns will be started in the near future.

"8. The following are some Ohio cities that have public playgrounds: Akron, Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Dennison, East Liverpool, Fremont, Hamilton, Lakewood, Lorain, Portsmouth, Martins Ferry, Springfield, Tiffin, Toledo, Youngstown, Zanesville. The total amount expended in these cities is estimated to be $106,979.00.

"9. All the data given above refers to cities of more than 5,000 inhabitants. There are scores of smaller towns throughout the United States that are doing something.

"10. All racial workers, all educators, all physicians, all police officers, all juvenile judges and court officers and almost all intelligent people of every rank in life, are of the opinion that play is a necessity to childhood, and that recreation is necessary to all.

"The question that we desire to have this board and this city answer is, shall Newark enter the list of cities that believe it is the inherent right of our children to have a legal place to play and provide that place, or shall we continue to delay? You now own the ground. It is not equipped. In its present condition it is of no practical value as a playground. It will cost $3,000 or more to make it first class and a playground of which every citizen will be proud. As a Board of Education you realize that it will take all the money at your command during the next three or four years to provide teachers, buildings, equipment, and to meet the contingent expenses necessary to a proper administration of the schools. Therefore, we see no plan by which you can equip and maintain this playground in the immediate future at the expense of the board. However, rather than see nothing done, and fully realizing the need to the city of public playgrounds, and the very great advantage of this athletic field to the high school in particular, your superintendent of schools and principal of high school, are willing and desirous, with the assistance of other principals and teachers and the high school pupils, to undertake a campaign during the first week in April (vacation week) to raise $3,000 toward the equipment of this field. We shall undertake this campaign upon the following conditions:

"(1.) That the Board of Education pass a resolution consenting to the campaign and endorsing it, and containing the following provisions:

"First—That the Board of Education will establish a play ground fund into which all moneys received in this campaign shall be placed and expended only by the Board upon the public playgrounds, and in the same method as other expenditures by the Board are made, every expense showing upon the record of the board.

"Second—That the board will appoint a standing committee from its own members upon playgrounds, who shall investigate and report from time to time the same as other committees of the board.

"Third—That the board will maintain the playground under proper and efficient supervision, when this money raised by public subscription has been expended, and will make as liberal appropriation from time to time for additional equipment as the finances of the board will justify.

"Fourth—That the playground shall be open without charge to all citizens and children of Newark who abide by the rules governing the playground, except at such times as entertainments or athletic contests are being given when an admission may be charged.

(Signed) "WILSON HAWKINS, Superintendent.

"O. J. BARNES, Principal."

A motion was made that this matter be acted upon and the following resolution of the board was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the Board of Education of the City of Newark, O., endorse and commend the campaign proposed by the Superintendent of schools, and High school Principal, to raise $3,000 for equipping the tract of land recently purchased for a public playground, and that the board agrees to maintain the playground under efficient supervision, to be responsible for the legitimate expenditure of all moneys collected, to appoint a standing committee from the board upon public playgrounds, to render such additional financial assistance as the finances of the board and the law will permit, and to maintain this playground free to all citizens on an equal basis, regardless of race, color, or religion."

A supplemental resolution was introduced by Mr. Kibler and passed unanimously, inviting the children of the parochial schools to co-operate with the children of the public schools on this play ground proposition.

Subscription blanks will be circulated for signatures reading:

PLAYGROUND SUBSCRIPTION. I promise to pay to the Board of Education of the City of Newark the sum of $..... Dollars to be used as a playground fund by said board in equipping the 6.1-2 acre tract located in Eleventh street. I promise to pay in the following installments:

Subscriber's Name.....

The clerk was authorized to advertise for bids for an addition to the Indiana street building.

The Rugg Fencing System proposed to build a fence steel forced, 10 feet high, along Eleventh street, inclosing the play grounds. This matter was passed.

The question of fire escapes on the North Fourth street building came up, and it was brought out that the state had ordered these escapes, and that they had not been constructed because of lack of funds. The matter will be taken up again at the next meeting.

The question of the preaching of the baccalaureate sermon was discussed to some extent, and a sentiment developed in favor of having this sermon preached in the high school auditorium, and this was voiced as the conclusion of the members.

Rev. George Bohan Schmidt of St. Paul's English Lutheran church will be invited to preach this sermon to the class of 1932 on Sunday June 8th.

On the playground proposition the members of the board and the superintendent raised $205 at the meeting, and there was a feeling of real enthusiasm manifested.

The proposition for buying 700 seats for the new buildings came up for settlement, and the bids as submitted some time ago were re-read in the totals.

HOW FEAR TENDS TO PROMOTE DISEASE IN OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Many of the foremost physicians of the Old World and the New recognize fear as a prominent factor in promoting various diseases. This is especially true of contagious disorders.

"The surest way," says Dr. Alfred T. Schofield, the eminent English physician and author, "to be attacked with an infectious disease is to be afraid of it." While such great Old World authorities as Dr. Graham Lys and Dr. Snow insist that organic diseases, such as cancer, are often produced by anxiety, fear and worry. Sir B. W. Richardson says, "It is remarkable how little the question of the origin of physical disease from mental influences has been studied."

Now if the position of these justly eminent present-day authorities is correct, it must be apparent to every thinking citizen that the constant harping on disease and describing various contagious diseases in exaggerated and sensational ways, as is being done by various so-called health writers in the newspapers and magazines and by the official doctors and representatives of the boards of health in published interviews throughout the country, is detrimental to the public health and is open to the same legitimate criticism that has been so frequently made against reckless advertisements of proprietary medicines. In like manner, the school examiners, who are constantly holding up disease before the sensitive child mind, are without doubt responsible for much sickness, and by creating fear and apprehension among the young are laying the foundation for years of suffering in thousands of lives. Where, if the idea of the contagion of health through right thinking and normal living were impressed, courage, hope, health and optimism would follow—Medical Freedom.
